The Zollverein School is situated to the north-east of the city of Essen between the suburbs of Stoppenberg and Katernberg.

Travelling from the North on the A 42 from Gelsenkirchen–Dortmund or Duisburg–Oberhausen:
Exit Gelsenkirchen–Hessler

Having taken this exit, turn left onto Schalke Straße and drive in the direction of Katernberg/Stoppenberg.

After the traffic lights at the junction, continue straight on following the tram tracks on Katernberger Straße.

The name of the street changes into Schonnebeckhöfe and takes you through a railway underpass.

After the underpass, continue along this street.

At the second set of traffic lights, turn right into Gelsenkirchener Straße.

On your right you should now be able to see the distinctive shafthead of Zollverein mine's shaft XII.

Shortly after the tram stop Katernberg Süd Bf turn right onto Haldenstrasse.

At the next crossways straightly left, you will find the Zollverein School in the red brick-lined building, Bullmannaue 11.

Travelling from the South
on the A 3, A 52 and A 40
from Köln / Düsseldorf:

Leave the A 3 at the autobahn junction Breitscheid and take the A 52 in the direction of Essen. After the exit Essen Bergerhausen, the A 52 turns into the A 40 in a lit tunnel.

Stay in the right-hand lane on the A40 and take the next exit: Essen-Frillendorf.

Having taken this exit, turn left at the first set of traffic lights and drive in the direction of Stoppenberg/Katernberg.

Turn right at the second set of traffic lights on Ernestinenstraße (observe the brown Zeche Zollverein sign on the right).

Continue along Ernestinenstraße through the suburbs Frillendorf and Stoppenberg.

At the T-junction with the traffic lights, turn right into Gelsenkirchener Straße and follow the tram tracks – after the main entrance Zollverein turn the second left onto Haldenstrasse. At the next crossways straightly left, you will find the Zollverein School in the red brick-lined building, Bullmannaue 11.
